

Psychology | PSY 101: Introductory Psychology
Fulfills a Social Science GE requirement

What better time to learn the facts, principles, and concepts associated with human development and behavior than during one of the most transformative years of your life? Think critically about the personal changes and new people you experience during your freshman year with the help of psychology basics.

Writing | RWS 92A: Developmental Writing

College professors agree that writing effectively is the number one skill necessary to succeed in all of your college courses. Give yourself a strong academic foundation when you enroll in RWS 92A. You will learn academic prose, emphasizing purpose, structure and style of academic essays, and improve your skills in planning, drafting, revising and editing essays. All of the reading and writing that you do in RWS 92A will be linked to your psychology course.
