

The Gates Cambridge Scholarships

The Gates Cambridge Trust, endowed by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, awards scholarships to 100 Gates Scholars per year to pursue graduate studies at the University of Cambridge. The Trust looks for students of great leadership potential and exceptional academic achievement. The scholarship covers University Composition Fee and College fees, maintenance allowance for a single student, and one economy one-way ticket to the UK and one economy one-way ticket returning from the UK. The Gates Cambridge Scholarship is only awarded to students who gain admission to Cambridge University through the regular admissions procedures.

Foundation Deadline: October 2008
