

British Marshall Scholarship

Marshall Scholarships finance approximately 40 young Americans of high ability to study for a degree in the United Kingdom each year. The Scholarships are tenable at any British university and cover two years of study in any discipline, at the undergraduate or graduate level, leading to the award of a British University degree. Scholars must hold a first degree from an accredited four-year college or university.

The Scholarships were founded by an Act of Parliament in 1953 and commemorate the humane ideals of the European Recovery Programme (Marshall Plan). They are funded by the Foreign & Commonwealth Office and administered by the Marshall Aid Commemoration Commission in the UK and in the US by the British Embassy in Washington DC and seven regional Consulates-General.

Potential applicants must receive the endorsement of their institution. The Marshall award covers University fees, cost of living expenses, annual book grant, thesis grant, research and daily travel grants, fares to and from the United States and, where applicable, a contribution towards the support of a dependent spouse.
