

Thomas R. Pickering Graduate Foreign Affairs Fellowship

The Thomas R. Pickering Graduate Foreign Affairs Fellowship is funded by the U.S. Department of State and administered by the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation. This scholarship serves to attract outstanding students who enroll in two-year master's degree programs in public policy, international affairs, public administration or academic fields such as business, economics, political science, sociology, or foreign languages, who represent all ethnic, racial and social backgrounds and who have an interest in pursuing a career with the Foreign Service in the US State Department. Women, members of minority groups historically underrepresented in the Foreign Service, and students with financial need are encouraged to apply.

The fellowship award includes tuition, room, board and mandatory fees for the first and second year of graduate study, with reimbursement for books and travel. Successful candidates are obligated to a minimum of three years of service in an appointment as a Foreign Service officer.

Foundation Deadline: Pending

Link: <http://www.woodrow.org/fellowships.php>