

Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Fellowship Program

The Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Fellowship seeks students who wish to pursue a career in the Foreign Service. Directed by the Ralph J. Bunche Center at Howard University in Washington, D.C., this award may be used at most accredited graduate or professional schools toward a degree in international affairs or a related focus. The Rangel Program promotes the participation of members of minority groups and those with financial need.

Ten Rangel Fellows are selected each year and each receives up to $28,000 annually for the expenses at a two-year master's degree program. Additionally, fellows are funded to participate in a six-week Summer Enrichment Program followed by a six-week Congressional Internship on Capitol Hill. The following summer Fellows participate in a 10-week internship at a U.S. Embassy overseas. Each Fellow is obligated to a minimum of three years of service in an appointment as a Foreign Service Officer.

Foundation Deadline: January 26, 2008

Link: <http://howard.edu/rjb/rangelprogram.htm>